Shri Vikrant Vir-DCP-Police, Varanasi, addressed the gathering and said that we have seen since 2011 when I was felicitated by this organization. Work for the society is a great task which is accomplished by the Association. I must appreciate and support to the association and Trust motto, whatever is possible from my side.

Shri Arvind Chauhan, Asstt Director of Income Tax-Investigation, addressed the gathering and said that I came to know about this Association and Federation from Shri Pankaj Seth, President of AIOBC UP STATE FEDERATION. They informed that the Federation had conducted felicitation for the successful candidates of UPSE in previous years. This is the time when we reached to a position and now we have to return with doubled back to our society. I assure you that wherever I will be transferred, I would be in touch with this Association.

Shri Kaushlendra Singh Yadav, Asstt. RTO-Enforcement addressed the gathering and said that he was very happy to know about the formation of Trust by the Association as well as planning to build a permanent building structure for the Trust and Association. It is a matter of overwhelming pride that the Trust will provide free accommodation to meritorious but financially weak students.

Shri Vikas Kumar-FGM-Union Bank of India, Varanasi graced the function with his presence and addressed the audience. He said that the Association is remarkably doing good job and for the welfare of its member. To establish a library again is a good work. My suggestion to the Association is to "include some different kind of books apart I am really mesmerized that the Association on behalf of TRUST-EMPOWER will have a structural plan for its own building and is planning to provide free accommodation to the needy and poor meritorious students. It will be a great support to the society. As an individual I would always be available for the Association.

Shri Sunil Kumar, Regional Head, Union Bank of India, Varanasi addressed the gathering present at the Association office and said that it would be a great work if Association and the newly formed TRUST - EMPOWER will fulfill its dream for having its own building and free home facility for the students of financially weak background. He also said that Association has been genuinely working for the OBC class in form of providing Pre-Promotion Training and organizing other skill development programmes. As a friend I would be happy to support the Association wherever my services are required.

Dr. Amritanshu, General Secretary of the Association, presented the lay-out of the proposed structure of the Association / Trust building He told the there will be a Three or Four Stairs building. First Lower Ground will have Parking + 70 seater Conference Hall, Second Upper Ground floor will have 2 Guest Rooms + 1 Official Chamber + Library Hall, Second Floor will have SIX ROOMS, 3 TOILETS, 1 URINAL, 2 BATHROOMS for 12 financially week but meritorious students, which are free for them, for FOOD TRUST will ask some support. Third Floor will be similar the that of second Floor. Note - As of now, Land is not purchased till date. However negotiation with the Property Dealer is in the final stage.
